DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

Dr. Lighthill takes pleasure to submit to those interested the following testimonials of cures:

> FROM MR. T. E. ROESSLE. PROPRIETOR OF THE ARLINGTON.

It gives me great pleasure to state that you effected a remarkable cure of deafness and discharge from the ears in the case of my cousin, Marcus C. Roessle, and that the case has proved as permanent as it was radical. I feel sure that without your skillful aid my cousin would have been a deaf man all his life. Knowing of other cases in which you have been equally successful, I cheerfully give you leave to refer to me at any time and hope that your practice in Washington will prove a distinguished success. Yours truly, T. E. ROESSLE.

FROM MR. H. P. DEGRAAF.

PRESIDENT OF THE BOWERY NATIONAL BANK.

NEW YORE, May 7, 1888. Da. LIGHTHILL: MY DEAR SIR: It affords me great pleasure to join the long list of grateful patients who have been relieved from troublesome and obstinate complaints by your superior skill. My case was chronic catarrh, from which I had suffered to such an extent that it weakened my general health and finally gave rise to such severe pain in and about the head and throat that it prevented me from sleeping and alarmed my famfly. I am happy to state that the very first application of your treatment gave me prompt and decided relief. In a few days the pain had disappeared and by degrees the other distressing symptoms characteristic of catarrh yielded to your administrations, until I now find myself completely cured. I therefore cheerfully tender you this testimonial of your skill and of the Diamond. Once more the base ball enthusiasts of the city were doomed to disappointment yesterday when the rain began to fall during the middle of the day and continued through the afternoon. The game between the Senators and the Cuban Giants had, therefore, to be postponed. As this is written it looks very much as though there would be a game today, but predicting is dangerous work nowadays. Mr. Hewett has decided to adopt one of the suggestions thrown out by THE STAR in regard to the notification of the public on wet days whether or not there will be a game. Hereafter whenever there is any doubt as to the chances of a contest coming off bulletins announcing the decision of the manager will be found posted conspicuously at the following points: THE STAR office, at the corner of 9th and F streets and at the corner of 15th street and New York avenue. By this means a majority of the would-be patrons will be reached without any effort on their part, and the points selected are so central that all who have any desire to know can learn in a few minutes. These bulletins will only be posted when there is a possible doubt and not when no rain has as that scheduled for the game. Next week will be a lively one at the park here if the weather is only a trifle more lenient than it has been this week. To lose three such games as those with Boston and the Cuban Giants and to play but one such game as that with William College is pretty hard lines, but it is only the fate that has come to most teams this year except those that went south. There are a few folks in town who really believe that Weshington is not stand for the content of Washington is not fitted for base ball, arguing that more rain falls here in a year than in any other ball club city. It was indeed true that Washington had more postponed games last year than any other league club, but it is undoubtedly a fact that there were dry days enough to satisfy the base ball hunger of the Washington patrons. The chances are that this year will be unusually dry. This is a private tip from the weather bureau.

fallen or is likely to fall during the same day

NEXT WEEK'S SCHEDULE. But, as to next week, there are first the Richmonds Monday and Tuesday, a strong club, eager for admission into an organization and with longing eyes on the franchise now held by Wilmington. It is believed by those who understand the situation that there is only one club in the Atlantic Association that may not finish the season, and that is Wilmington. But it is very certain that if Wilmington should drop out Richmodd stands ready to jump in at a moment's notice. The Richmond team is a fair one and depends upon what games can be played with Norfolk and other cities within a few hours from home.

After they have come and gone the Gorhams of New York, a strong semi-professional team, will play on Wednesday and also on Friday, with the Philadelphia club sandwiched in between on Thursday.

Boston people think that New York will walk away with the league pennant again next year, but Bostonians will have considerable respect for Brooklyn and Cincinnati when they see these two clubs play. Most of the men in these two teams are almost entire strangers to Boston and both the teams are stronger than ever before.—New York Telegram.

Arlie Latham is in another scrape. D. Castleman Webb, a young St. Louis attorney, has piloted the dude through all his matrimonial adventures, but he repudiated the bills for legal service. Webb got his blood up, and after Wednesday's game a constable took possession of all Latham's clothing, amounting to $500 in value. The unfortunate third baseman had to walk around in his base-ball garments until Comiskey lent him a suit three sizes too big.-Sun.

Yesterday's games resulted as follows: At Philadelphia — Philadelphia 17, Athletic 6; University 7, Williams 3. At New York— Rochester 6, New York 3. At Brooklyn— Brooklyn (L.) 13, Newark 2; Brooklyn (A.) 20, Jersey City, 11. At Chicago—Chicago (L.) 10, St. Louis 4. At Pittsburg—Pittsburg (L.) 8, Wheeling 6. At New Haven—New Haven 7, Mets 2. At Harrisburg—Harrisburg 11, Syracuse 3. At St. Louis-Chicago 10, Cleveland 6

Manager Barnie has challenged Powers of Rochester to play him two games in Baltimore on the 14th and 15th, the winner to take al! receipts. Powers says he has a game scheduled in Jersey City on the 14th and in New Haven on the 15th, and he, therefore, cannot accept Barnie's offer. He is willing, however, to play Baltimore on the first mutually open date and promises to snow the Orioles under. President Young, in an interview with a Baltimore Sun correspondent, admits that things look serious for the base ball business with increased competition and expenses, but he thinks that there is a greatly increased interest in the game and discredits the idea that there will be a collapse before the season is out.

Nevertheless it looks very much as though something would snap. Pittsburg's League Club is deplorably weak, being just able to pull out a game from Wheeling yesterday. The ex-Smoky city is very hot for the brotherhood, the Labor Union element there forming the larger part of the base ball patronage. Even in New York things do not appear bright for the league. Yesterday the liochester team, which Washington defeated, downed Mutrie's men 6 to 3, and this after the absorption of the

He was afterward released, but the authorities are still suspicious and have him under surveillance. The baron claims to be en route to Acapulico to take a steamer for Panama. ARCHER ARRESTED.

He is to Have a Hearing Next Tuesday Before the Governor.

State Treasurer Stevenson Archer was placed under arrest at his home at Belair yesterday says the Baltimore Sun, upon a bench warrant issued by Judge Harlan of Baltimore. Messenger Maguire summoned him to appear before the governor at Annapolis on Tuesday next to answer the charge of malfeasance in office, which has been made against him. The legislative investigating committee have been occupled in taking testimony relative to Mr. Archer's loans for which the state's securities were pledged. Thus far the committee have traced $43,500 of the $127,000 missing. The committee made its report to Gov. Jackson. It recommends that the attorney general be instructed to proceed at once to bring suit on the several bonds given by Archer for the faithful performance of his official duties and that the facts developed by the committee in the course of their investigation, with the testimony taken by them, be laid before the attorney general and the state's attorney of Baltimore city. As soon as the legislative investigation committee submitted its report and charge to the gov ernor in Baltimore this afternoon he sum moned State's Attorney Kerr of Baltimore and Chief of Police Frey and after a brief conference it was decided to no longer delay crimina proceedings, but at once place the dishonest official under arrest. The investigation will be ontinued today.

Mr. Archer was placed under arrest at his home, "Hazel Dell," by Detective Pumphrey of Baltimore, who arrived at Belair on the state of o'clock train. The detective drove to Mr Archer's house, and on entering the porch he was met by Mr. Geo. Van Bibber, who asked him whom he wished to see. Mr. Pumphrey told him that he wanted to see Mr. Archer. The two men disappeared through a door which leads to the parlor. Mr. Van Bibber requested that the nature of the business with Mr. Archer be told to him, as he could attend to it. When informed of the nature of the visit Mr. Van Bibber offered no objections and led the way to the room where Mr. Archer was lying in bed. On entering the room the detective read the bench warrant, which was sworn out before Judge Harlan of Baltimore. While Mr. Pumphrey read the contents of the paper Mr. Archer listened attentively and showed little or no sign of discomfiture. At the conclusion of the reading Mr. Archer said:

"This is what I expected."

He would have talked further, but at that moment Mr. J. E. Maguire, the governor's messenger, entered the room and after greeting Mr. Archer the messenger then read the folowing notice: "State of Maryland, Executive Department, Annapolis, Md.-To Stevenson Archer, treasurer of Maryland.—Sir: You are hereby notified that charges have been preferred to me against you for malfeasance in office and for misappropriation of the funds of the state, a copy of which charges and the names of the witn are herewith furnished to you. I have fixed Tuesday next, the 15th day of April, A.D. 1890, at 11 o'clock a.m., at the executive department, Annapolis, Md., for a hearing of the said charges, at which time and place you are hereby notified to be and appear then and there to answer the said charges in obedience o section 6 of article 6 of the constitution of the state of Maryland. Witness my hand, this 10th day of April, A.D. 1890.

"ELIHU E. JACKSON, "Governor of Maryland. "By the Governor.

"E. W. LE COMPTE, "Secretary of State." When Mr. Maguire finished reading the paper Mr. Archer looked up and said: "I suppose I shall have to answer this?" Mr. Van Bibber interrupted him by saying: 'We will attend to that afterward."

point Mr. Van Bibber asked Mr. Maguire if he had any further business with Mr. Archer, and if not he would ask him to retire, as he wanted to talk privately with Mr. Pumphrey. During the reading of the warrant and of the governor's summons there was no one in the room excepting the officers and Mr. Van Bibber. Several friends who had been present were asked to leave, and it was not until late that the family were made acquainted with the news of Mr. Archer's arrest, and it fell like a thunder-clap among them. Mrs. Silver and Miss Daisy Archer were assisted in caring for their mother by Mrs. Van Bibber.

The condition of Mr. Archer is such that it will be impossible for him to be moved for several days, during which time Detective Pumphrey will remain. The home of Mr. Archer was like a deserted building. Scarcely are light acuted by any lights could be seen from the outside and any lights could be seen from the outside and every one walked on tip-toe. In the town no one seemed to know what had taken place at "Hazel Dell," Those who knew of the visit of Detective Pumphrey thought he had come to serve notice on Mr. Archer to appear before the investigating committee.

the investigating committee. Mr. Archer has been under watch for several days. The grand jury of the criminal court of Baltimore city have been advised by proper legal authority that if Mr. Archer's misuse of the state funds constitute embezzlement the grand jury of that city will present him for trial in the criminal court unless the case be removed. But if the acts committed constitute malfeas-ance in office the grand jury of the circuit court at Annapolis will take cognizance of it.

CORNELL'S EMBARRASSMENT Judgment Creditors Cannot Find Him nor Learn Where He Is.

Alonzo B. Cornell, formerly governor of New York, is missing and his disappearance is causing serious comment in financial circles, owing to certain transactions which have lately come to light and which are not favorable to Mr. Cornell's business reputation. It is generally known now that he is either in hiding or has kept out of the way to avoid the sheriff's officers, as judgments have been entered against him for about $5,000 on promisory notes, of which he was either the maker or indorser.

Half a dozen judgments for various amounts have been obtained against the governor, and it is also reported in banking circles that he has issued a great deal of his own paper, secured discounts for it here and there, and the general belief is that a large amount of such paper is either now outstanding, protested or waiting maturity. Some of the governor's in-timate friends have said that the reason for his peculiar business transactions is due to what they believe is mental prostration and that sort of overbalancing of the mind which comes from overwork and mental strain.

He seemed to have visions respecting the negotiation of business schemes of vast magni-tude, which his friends knew perfectly well were purely imaginary. His manner has been nervous and constrained and he has become irritable, very loquacious and has been seen go-ing around the streets talking to himself in a nervous and excited namer. Some of his real estate transactions also have been so peculiar that they have confirmed the fears his friends have of his mental condition.

Jersey City's Election to be Contested. It is certain that the re-election of Orestes Cleveland as mayor of Jersey City will be contested by the republicans and anti-ring democrats as soon as the result of the election is officially announced by the board of canvassers. If Mr. Perkius, the defeated republican candidate, will not take action himself the friends of reform will do it independently. This course was decided on at a meeting of the executive committee of the Hudson County Ballot Reform Association. The face of the returns gives Cleveland 1.822 majority over Perkins. The vote in the six assembly districts forming Jersey City shows, it is claimed, that Cleveland was elected by what are clearly swoilen and fraudulent majorities in two districts.
